PEACE TREATY TO BE READY FOR SIGNING MARCH 20

BAKER AND DANIELS TO GO ABROAD NEXT WEEK

Secretary of Navy and High Officers to Confer on Type of Warships to Be Built

Proposed Visit Will Set Precedent, Making 3 Heads of Government Away at Once

WASHINGTON, March 7.—Secretary Daniels and a party of American naval experts will leave for Europe next week to discuss with Allied naval officials the best type of capital warships to be built in the future, based on the lessons gained in the war. Because of conflicting opinions among American officers, the secretary has been asked to submit a definite recommendation to the next congress.

It was learned that Secretary Baker would sail for Europe about April 1 to close up the business operations of the American Expeditionary Forces. He will be absent about six weeks. Thus President Wilson and the heads of both the army and navy probably will be away from the country at the same time—a situation which many officials said today was without precedent.

To Visit Capitals

The naval secretary will be accompanied by Rear Admiral Taylor, chief of the bureau of construction and repair; Griffin, chief of the bureau of steam engineering; Earle, chief of the bureau of ordnance; and Commander Foote, his personal aide. The party will be joined overseas by Admiral Benson, chief of the bureau of operations, who is attached to the American peace delegation and Vice Admiral Sims, commanding all American naval forces in European waters. Mr. Daniels and his party will sail from New York on the Leviathan a week from tomorrow and will go first to Paris to confer with the French admiralty. Later they will visit London and Rome. Plans for the return trip have not yet been made.

The American mission will address itself particularly to the question of future types of capital ships. It has been the judgment of the navy general board that the United States should continue to build dreadnaughts of constantly increasing power and battle radius.

Composite Ships Favored

Admiral Mayo, now commander of the Atlantic fleet; Vice Admiral Sims, and Rear Admiral Benson, the three officers who have held the highest posts of the American service in the war zone, believe, however, that a composite ship, combining the speed of a battle cruiser with the gun power and armor of a battleship, should be substituted. These officers have been particularly impressed by British experiments toward a composite craft with the construction of the Hood, one of the so-called British "hush" ships.

Secretary Daniels was invited by the British admiralty to visit Europe during the war, but he was unable to accept the invitation. Assistant Secretary Roosevelt, who will be acting secretary while Mr. Daniels is overseas, twice visited the war zone.

Secretary Baker made two visits to France during the war and had planned a third one after the signing of the armistice.

The war secretary hopes to be able to complete all the work that lies before him in France in three weeks and get back to Washington by the middle of May. While he is overseas Benedict Crowell, first assistant to Mr. Baker, will act as secretary of war.

AMERICAN STEAMER AGROUND OFF COAST

NORFOLK, Va., Mar. 7.—The American steamer Elizabeth was reported aground tonight off Wimple Shoals, N. C., with five feet of water in her hold and filling rapidly. The crew was reported still aboard, but breeches buoys had been rigged up and tugs from Norfolk are due to reach the steamer at daylight.

Wilson Opposes Destruction of German Ships

WASHINGTON, March 7.—President Wilson has written Representative Fuller, of Massachusetts, that he was opposed to the sinking of the surrendered German warships, but that his judgment was not final as he had not had the opportunity to discuss the matter with authoritative naval men. This he would do, he said, when he returned to Paris.

The president's letter said the proposal to destroy the warships seemed "like the counsel of those who do not know what else to do."

FOOD CONDITION IN EUROPE TRAGIC

Rumania, Serbia, Austria and Germany Starving, Declares Minister

(By Review Leased Wire)

NEWCASTLE, England, March 7 (British Wireless Service).—George H. Roberts, the food minister, speaking here today said that he could state on unimpeachable authority that the situation with regard to food conditions in great areas of Europe was tragic. "It is not too much to say that Rumania is starving, that Serbia is starving, that Austria is starving and that Germany is starving," he declared. "Ever since the armistice was signed the Allies have been doing what they could to relieve the situation and food should be or is being sent to all the countries I have named. But it is not enough, and the question now arises whether we shall be able to get sufficient food to those countries in time to prevent a catastrophe."

The supreme council in Paris is straining every nerve to meet the situation. I am going over to Paris Monday to attend the meetings of the council, and I pray it may be possible for us to take such emergency measures as may starve off the impending disaster.

"Clearly we cannot complacently watch Europe starving and feed ourselves to the full. That is not the spirit of this nation, which, through its unselfishness, won the war. We are going to help, and if helping means that the situation here does not improve as rapidly as it otherwise would, this country, I am sure, will not grumble. As soon as the people realize the seriousness of the situation which is developing in Europe, they will be the first to call upon the government to intervene."

Misuse of Powers Charged in Case Before Supreme Court Fighting Federal Control

Hughes Declares Postmaster-General Had Ulterior Motive in Combining Lines

(By Review Leased Wire)

NEW YORK, Mar. 7.—Removal of Postmaster General Burleson from the cabinet was called for in a resolution unanimously adopted by the central federated union. The resolution was presented by Percy Thomas, deputy international president of the Commercial Telegraphers' union.

(By Review Leased Wire)

WASHINGTON, March 7.—Charles E. Hughes, appearing before the supreme court today as counsel for the Commercial Cable and Commercial Pacific Cable companies, charged that Postmaster General Burleson, by taking control of the marine cable systems, after the signing of the armistice, had misused the powers conferred by a joint congressional resolution, had given the resolution an interpretation "foreign to the intent of congress" and had as an "ulterior motive" the forcing of government ownership of the cables.

The accusations by Mr. Hughes were generally denied by solicitor General King, who presented the case of the government, asking the court to sustain the decision of lower courts dismissing injunction proceedings brought by the two cable companies to prevent the postmaster general from taking over their cables and merging them with those of the Western Union Telegraph company.

Extension Given

Although each side was given an extension of time to present arguments, arguments were concluded before the court adjourned. Mr. Hughes contended that although the presidential proclamation under which the action was taken was dated November 2, it actually was not signed until after hostilities ceased on November 11. In reply, Mr. King asserted that the cables were taken over in reality on November 2, when the proclamation was signed by the president, but did not pass into the hands of the postmaster general until fourteen days afterwards.

Government control over the marine cable system is more needed now than previous to the signing of the armistice, Mr. King argued.

He pointed out to the turning over to the state department of an entire wire to Europe, the fact that American troops are on German soil and that Germany and Austria still are at enmity with this country, as sufficient proof that government supervision is needed.

The solicitor general further contended that the issues involved in the case were not justifiable, and no court could inquire into them.

In replying Mr. Hughes said there existed under constitutional law no such thing as delegation by congress of unrestricted power with no opportunity for official scrutiny and rectification. The president in taking over the cables, he said, did not act under any authority conferred on him as commander in chief of the army and navy, but under powers conferred by act of congress and which could as well have been delegated to any other officer of the government.

BULGARIANS RETURN CAPTIVES TO GREECE

U. S. Will Act To Halt Flour Price Increase

NEW YORK, March 7.

—The United States food administration grain corporation announced tonight that on March 15 it will begin sale of its surplus wheat holdings in American milling centers in an effort to prevent an increase in flour prices.

Julius H. Barnes, president of the corporation, said the department of agriculture report issued today indicated that "contrary to public opinion, the crop of 1918 will provide no more than sufficient to meet our home needs and the foreign requirements falling upon us."

SUBSTITUTE ROAD BILL IS PLANNED

Democrats Decide on Course at Caucus; Measure to Come Up Today

(By Review Leased Wire)

PHOENIX, Mar. 7.—Following the vetoing of senate highway bill number 17 by the governor, the majority in the legislature has decided to introduce a substitute for the Roberts bill, sponsored by the Ochse delegation in the house, to raise an annual levy through the counties of a sum in the neighborhood of two million dollars for road purposes, according to the decision of a democratic caucus said to have been held late today.

Today the senate passed a resolution placing on the calendar as special order of business consideration of highway legislation and this was set for 2:30 o'clock tomorrow.

The Roberts measure which is still pending, left optional with the counties a proposed road tax levy of five mills and lifted the ten per cent limit on taxes on assessed valuations. It also confined the building of roads to a strictly county basis under the direction of the supervisors, while the new proposal is said to provide for an arrangement whereby the state and the counties will work together, and with the federal government to give Arizona the benefit of federal appropriations as well.

Like the vetoed highway bill, the Roberts bill carries an emergency clause, its original intention, explained when it was introduced, being to provide work for unemployed men during the present unsettled period.

27 KILLED, 73 WOUNDED IN FIGHTING

200 Malcontents at Kimmel Camp Incite Riot Because They Want Early Discharge

Threatened Raid on Abergelle Prevented When Rebellious Troops Are Shot by Others

(By Review Leased Wire)

LONDON, Mar. 7.—From eight to 27 persons are estimated to have been killed and from 25 to 73 wounded in rioting during the past two days at the Kimmel military camp at Rhyl, Wales, according to a Liverpool dispatch received here tonight. Great property damage was caused, the dispatch adds.

According to latest reports from Liverpool the riot was started by about 200 malcontents. There were 25,000 Canadians in the camp waiting demobilization and embarkation. The men who caused the trouble were war casualties who had served for three years or more in France. They complained that their embarkation had been postponed while other men who had seen less service were sent home.

Cavalry Called Out

After the destruction of stores of all kinds on Tuesday by the discontented men, the situation took a more serious turn Wednesday when the cavalry was called out but was forbidden to use its arms.

Troops from Chester intercepted the rioters in their march upon Abergelle, near Rhyl, and also prevented a threatened raid on the latter place. Five men were killed and 40 injured in the course of this fighting, it is reported.

There was further shooting early Thursday morning, but at no time was there organized firing by any armed party. Most of the deaths were due to crushing, it is said. An unnamed major holding the Victoria cross and believed to be from New Brunswick is reported to have been virtually trampled to death while attempting to defend the officers' quarters against great odds.

Order Is Restored

The Daily Mail says the Canadian authorities restored order without the assistance of British troops and declared that the matter is solely for Canadian disciplinary action.

The Canadian officials have informed the war office that they do not desire any increase in shipping facilities as a consequence of the outbreak, as they do not intend to be coerced by the rioters.

Later on Thursday numbers of the men paraded in Rhyl. They made noisy demonstrations, but committed no damage.

The outbreak began Tuesday night with the signal cry "Come on bolshevik!" uttered by a man said to belong to the Canadian forces. A large number of men wrecked the store buildings and thousands of loaves of bread were trampled into the mud. The women's auxiliary quarters were then rushed and the women's clothes carried off. The rioters seized stores of ammunition, fired on the officers' quarters and then began a march in the direction of Abergelle, but were held up.

A staff officer flew from the war office in London by airplane and addressed the men, declaring that their grievances regarding demobilization, especially, which caused the outbreak, should be immediately removed. He declared that 10,000 men would be away by the week after next and that four transports would be placed at the disposal of the colonials.

ELECTION RESULT PLEASES WILSON

President Sends Congratulations to Namesake in Pennsylvania

(By Review Leased Wire)

ON BOARD U. S. S. GEORGE WASHINGTON, March 7 (By Wireless to the Associated Press).—President Wilson today expressed himself as greatly pleased at the outcome of the election in the Twenty-second Pennsylvania Congressional Congress, particularly as the League of Nations was made an issue. The President sent a wireless message to Joseph P. Tumulty, his secretary, as follows:

"Please extend my cordial congratulations to Mr. Wilson (J. H. Wilson, Democrat) just elected in Pennsylvania, and express my gratification that he won upon the issue of the League of Nations."

President Wilson is thoroughly refreshed by the rest he has had, but under protest, as he laughingly expressed it, continued to obey the edict of Rear Admiral Cary T. Grayson, his personal physician, against work. The President autographed a photograph of himself on the George Washington, inscribing it "To my comrades."

Late News Bulletins

BERLIN, Thursday, Mar. 6.—(By the Associated Press).—Government troops began an attack today from all sides of the center of the city and made brilliant progress. The attack was for the purpose of relieving police headquarters. A column from the west progressed to within a block of police headquarters in two hours.

LONDON, Mar. 7.—When Spartan forces captured the main telegraph office in Berlin Thursday, the members of the American Red Cross mission were endangered by the shooting, according to an Exchange Telegraph dispatch from Berlin. Colonel Taylor ordered the women with the mission to seek safety in the palace hotel.

The American mission to look after the welfare of prisoners entrenched itself in the hotel Adlon behind a battery of machine guns.

The battle for the telegraph office, the dispatch adds, was the worst Berlin has seen.

NEW YORK, March 7.—Application was made in supreme court here today for an injunction to restrain exhibition of a moving picture film in which Countess von Bernstorff, wife of the former German ambassador to the United States, is shown with her husband in a banquet scene which bears a caption reading "Bernstorff and his American wife, who were engaged in murder and other crimes in the United States."

The injunction was asked in behalf of Countess von Bernstorff by Pauline Lewis, who declared in her affidavit that the wife of the German diplomat, who was Jeanne Luckmeyer, daughter of Edward Luckmeyer, a New York importer, forfeited her American citizenship by her marriage, "but not her loyalty to the United States, where she was born in 1867."

TERMS SENT WILSON BY LONG RADIO

President to Have Only Five or Six Days to Consider Various Phases of Case

Military, Aerial and Naval Conditions Now in Hands American Chief Executive

(By the Associated Press.)

PARIS, Mar. 7.—(By the Associated Press.)—President Wilson is being advised daily by wireless of the developments of the peace congress, so that when he arrives in Paris he will be about as fully informed as those who have attended the sessions.

The complete military, naval and aerial terms of the proposed peace treaty were sent to him textually by the American military and naval advisers with notations and reservations. This was an enormous task, involving thousands of words—sufficient to fill many newspaper columns.

These details have not yet been made public, so that President Wilson has a much more intimate knowledge of the situation than most of those attending the conference.

Plan Completion March 20

The present plan is to complete the peace treaty March 20. In this case President Wilson would have only five or six days to consider the main subject of the treaty when it has reached the vital stage, except for the wireless.

Brig. Gen. William W. Harts, formerly military attaché of the White House, has been given charge of arrangements for the president's arrival and stay in Paris. The French government will send a special train to Brast to meet the presidential party. On it will go several cabinet officers, probably Foreign Minister Pichon, Minister of Marine Lyautey, Cpt. Andre Tardieu of the French peace delegation and others. Col. Edward M. (Continued on Page Two)

M. Pichon after referring to the historic bond of friendship between Poland and France, wrote:

"In no country was recognition of your nation after its long martyrdom more hoped for than in France."
